FOOTHILL MUSIC THEATRE UNVEILS NEW THEATRE WITH LERNER & LOEWE'S
"MY FAIR LADY"
February 22-March 16, 2008

WHAT: Multi-award winning Foothill Music Theatre will unveil its brand new Lohman Theatre with a sumptuous new production of Lerner and Loewe's classic musical, MY FAIR LADY. Foothill Music Theatre's production will launch the Peninsula's newest theatre venue with an intimate, jewel-box interpretation of the musical spectacle about a linguistics professor who, on a wager, takes in a cockney flower girl from the streets of London, vowing to transform her into a refined lady. This Broadway masterpiece was hailed as "one of the all-time great song and dancers" by the Daily Mirror and became a national sensation, boasting some of Lerner and Loewe's most memorable songs, including "The Rain in Spain," "Wouldn't It Be Lovely," and "I've Grown Accustomed to her Face." Award-Winning Director Jay Manley helms this unique interpretation of the Tony Award-winning show, performed with a two piano accompaniment.

Foothill Music Theatre, under the artistic direction of Jay Manley, has won Bay Area Theatre Critics' Circle Awards for Outstanding Production, Outstanding Ensemble Production, and Best Direction, among others. The company has also garnered numerous Dean Goodman Choice Awards, awards from the Los Angeles-based Drama-Logue, and kudos from myriad Bay Area critics for its sharp, handsomely mounted productions of Annie Get Your Gun, Brigadoon, Ragtime, Sweeney Todd, Guys and Dolls, Showboat, West Side Story, Carousel, Oklahoma! and other classic musicals.
