SAN FRANCISCO (06 July 2007) – Just when you thought it was safe to go back to the theater, the internationally acclaimed bad boys of abridgement, the Reduced Shakespeare Company, unleash theatrical anarchy at the Marines Memorial Theatre in San Francisco, November 6-January 6, with limited engagements of two side-splitting San Francisco premieres, THE BIBLE: THE COMPLETE WORD OF GOD (abridged) and COMPLETELY HOLLYWOOD (abridged). For tickets (on sale October 7) and information, the public may call the Marines Memorial Theatre box office, located at 609 Sutter St., San Francisco, at 415 771-6900, visit any Ticketmaster outlet, or log on to ticketmaster.com.

The good book just got better with THE BIBLE: THE COMPLETE WORD OF GOD (abridged), an irreverent roller coaster ride from fig leaves to Final Judgment. Nothing is sacred as the cultural guerrillas from the Reduced Shakespeare Company tackle such great theological questions as did Adam and Eve have navels and did Moses really look like Charlton Heston? Christened “clever,” “funny,” and “inspired” by the Washington Post and “a triumph of good ‘n’ silly over evil” by The Boston Globe, the Reduced Shakespeare Company puts the fun back in fundamentalism with this madcap trip through old time religion.

It’s lights! Cameras! Reduction! as the Reduced Shakespeare Company explores the wonderful, wacky world of movies. From the silents to the talkies, the indies to the blockbuster noisies, COMPLETELY HOLLYWOOD (abridged) rummages through the reels of Tinsletown’s most memorable classics and biggest hits, reducing 200 films into 100 minutes, cutting through the celluloid to give Hollywood a riotous nip and tuck in an epic edit of movie masterpieces.
